Risks: In addition to general market conditions, FinTech Companies may be adversely impacted by government regulations, economic conditions and deterioration in credit markets. Companies in the information technology sector are subject to rapid changes in technology product cycles; rapid product obsolescence; government regulation; and increased competition, both domestically and internationally, including competition from foreign competitors with lower production costs. The IT services industry can be significantly affected by competitive pressures, such as technological developments, fixed-rate pricing, and the ability to attract and retain skilled employees, and the success of companies in the industry is subject to continued demand for IT services. The Fund is non-diversified, which means it may have a greater percentage of its assets in a single issuer than a diversified fund. The Fund invests in companies of all sizes, including small and medium sized companies whose securities may be thinly traded and more difficult to sell during market downturns.

The FactSet Global Fintech Index™ is an unmanaged and equal-weighted index that measures the equity market performance of companies engaged in Financial Technologies, primarily in the areas of software and consulting, data and analytics, digital payment processing, money transfer, and payment transaction-related hardware, across 30 developed and emerging markets. The S&P 500 Index measures the performance of 500 widely held large-cap U.S. companies. The indexes and the Fund returns reflect the reinvestment of dividends and other earnings, which positively impact performance results. The indexes are unmanaged. Index performance is not fund performance. Investors cannot invest directly in an index. Historical Sales Growth is calculated as the 5-year compound annual growth rates of sales. Historical EPS Growth is calculated as the 5-year compound annual growth rates of Earnings Per Share. FCF Margin is calculated as Free Cash Flow divided by Sales, multiplied by 100. FCF is calculated as Net Cash Flow From Operations minus the sum of the following if available: Capital Expenditures from the cash flow statement and Common & Preferred Cash Paid Dividends. If Capital Expenditures is not available, Property Plant & Equipment - Capital Expenditures will be substituted. If Common & Preferred Cash Paid Dividends is not available, the sum of Total Common Dividends by Ex-Dividend and Preferred Dividends is substituted. If Preferred Dividends is not available, zero will be substituted. ROIC (Return on Invested Capital) is calculated as Net Income divided by Average Invested Capital multiplied by 100. Average Invested Capital is calculated as the sum of Long-Term Invested Capital including Minority Interest and Total Short-Term Debt. Active Share is a term used to describe the share of a portfolio's holdings that differ from that portfolio's benchmark index. It is calculated by comparing the weight of each holding in the Fund to that holding's weight in the benchmark. Positions with either a positive or negative weighting versus the benchmark have Active Share. An Active Share of 100% implies zero overlap with the benchmark. Active Share was introduced in 2006 in a study by Yale academics, M. Cremers and A. Petajisto, as a measure of active portfolio management.
